Interim joint committee meetings begin in June

by LRC Public Information

FRANKFORT — The first week of committee meetings of the 2025 interim period begins June 3 for Kentucky lawmakers.

An interim joint committee is composed of all members of a Senate standing committee and all members of a House standing committee. Interim joint committees meet between sessions as a subcommittee of the Legislative Research Commission. Statutory and special committees may also meet during the interim period.

For the full 2025 interim calendar, visit <https://legislature.ky.gov/Documents/Current%20Interim%20Calendar.pdf>. Please note, the calendar is subject to change.

Unless otherwise indicated on the calendar, most interim joint, statutory and special committee meetings are scheduled to take place in the Capitol Annex building in Frankfort.

Livestreams of the committee meetings will be provided by Kentucky Educational Television (KET) and the Legislative Research Commission. For links to the livestreams, go to <https://legislature.ky.gov/Public%20Services/PIO/Pages/Live-Streams.aspx>.

Each week, the legislative calendar on the Legislative Research Commission website will be updated with information on which committees are meeting for the week. The calendar is available at <https://apps.legislature.ky.gov/LegislativeCalendar>.

Kentucky lawmakers will resume holding committee meetings next month as the 2025 interim period kicks off in Frankfort

The Kentucky Legislative Research Commission is a 16-member committee of the majority and minority leadership of the Kentucky Senate and House of Representatives. Under Chapter 7 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, the LRC constitutes the administrative office for the General Assembly. Its director serves as chief administrative officer of the Legislature when it isn't in session.

The Commission and its staff, by law and by practice, perform numerous fact-finding and service functions for members of the Legislature, employing professional, clerical and other employees required when the General Assembly is in session and during the interim period between sessions. These employees, in turn, assist committees and individual legislators in preparing legislation. Other services include conducting studies and investigations, organizing and staffing committee meetings and public hearings, maintaining official legislative records and other reference materials, providing information about the Legislature to the public, compiling and publishing administrative regulations, administering a legislative intern program, conducting orientation programs for new legislators, and publishing a daily index and summary of legislative actions during sessions.

The LRC is also responsible for statute revision, publishing and distributing the Acts and Journals following sessions, and for maintaining furnishings, equipment and supplies for the Legislature. It also functions as Kentucky's Commission on Interstate Cooperation in carrying out the program of The Council of State Governments as it relates to Kentucky.
